

Iain Lang

Graduating from NIDA in 1975 Iain went on to work in theatre-in-education for many years touring schools extensively in Australia and overseas. Iain has worked consistently as an actor for more than 35 years in plays such as Les Liaisons Dangereux, Hate, Death and the Maiden, Serious Money, Away, many children's pantomimes and Shakespeare productions. He has worked in film, television and radio and recently appeared on the ABC in the docudramas The Outlaw - Michael Howe and Death or Liberty and the Fox TV drama production The Kettering Incident

He also has worked in the development of community theatre projects and festivals works, as a puppeteer, dramaturg, director and producer. For The Tasmanian Theatre Company he appeared in The Messiah, Poxed, Tree Widows, The Berry Man and a solo show for schools The Boy With The Longest Shadow. He is based in Hobart and he can often be seen performing his madcap version of The Punch and Judy Show at festivals and fairs.